

Organizational Case Report Spring 2011–Fall 2021

This report was publicly released on March 11, 2022 by the Chair and Executive Committee of the University Judiciary Committee (UJC) pursuant to Article IX Section A (3) of the UJC By-Laws. This report presents information on UJC cases against Student Organizations adjudicated from the Spring 2011 semester to the Fall 2021 semester.¹

The UJC By-Laws were amended by a vote of the Committee on January 30, 2022 to permit the release of finalized organizational case information including but not limited to “the date of adjudication; the Accused or Sanctioned Organization’s name and type; relevant incident information; standards charged, verdicts, and pleas; any finalized sanctions, organizational restrictions, sanctions held in abeyance and their terms,” Supra. (3)(a). The Chair and Executive Committee may limit or restrict release of information at their discretion, Id, and the Committee may not release otherwise confidential material relating to a UJC or Honor case against a student or another student group, nor personally identifiable information (PII) of any involved students or witnesses without a written waiver of their right to confidentiality for that purpose, Supra (3)(b). This officially released information is public and may be reproduced or published by any person, organization, or administrative office of the University, Supra (3)(e). All other information regarding these matters remains governed by the normal confidentiality provisions of the UJC By-Laws in Article IX Section A (1).

As this release is the first of its kind issued by the UJC -it encompasses organizational cases from the past ten years (Spring 2011 to Fall 2021) pursuant to the UJC records retention policies in Article VI Section D of the By-Laws. Beginning with the cases adjudicated in the Spring 2022 semester, organizational case information will be released once per semester or as otherwise deemed prudent by the Chair and Executive Committee.

The sanction and incident information sections listed for each case are abridged summaries and do not indicate the full text and scope of each sanction and incident.

These data do not include organizational cases which have been accepted but have not yet been adjudicated, or which have been adjudicated in the Spring 2022 semester or later. As of March 16, 2022 the UJC has adjudicated one (1) additional organizational case with another six (6) organizational cases pending on the docket.

¹ This report was compiled by the UJC 2021-2022 Organizational Case Working Group.

Student Organizational Contracts at UVa

The UJC has jurisdiction over alleged violations of the University Standards of Conduct by student organizations affiliated with the University. The Standards of Conduct and the UJC's jurisdiction are included within the terms of an organization's contract with the University. The two contract types seen herein are:

1. Fraternal Organization Agreements (FOAs) apply to most social Greek letter organizations, with oversight subdivided into four councils that work closely with Fraternity and Sorority Life (FSL—a unit of the Office of the Dean of Students [ODOS]): the Inter-Fraternity Council (IFC), the Inter-Sorority Council (ISC), the National Pan Hellenic Council (NPHC), and the Multicultural Greek Council (MGC)².
2. Contracted Independent Organizations (CIOs) are clubs in relationship with the University which have access to Student Activities Fund (SAF) disbursements as administered by Student Council, as well as access to event space on Grounds. CIOs are supported by Student Engagement, a unit of ODOS.

About the UJC

In instances where an accused party is found guilty of or pleads guilty to violating one or more of the Standards of Conduct, the elected student judges of the trial panel may assign no sanction, one sanction, or multiple sanctions. Sanctions are determined on a case-by-case basis, and the trial panel takes into account aggravating and mitigating factors. The UJC's mission is to maintain and promote a community of safety, respect, and freedom.

Please note, Sanctions listed as “in abeyance” are conditionally held sanctions that serve as a strong recommendation to a future UJC Trial Panel in the instance of future misconduct as specified.

The UJC is an entirely student-run organization made up of more than 110 students representing every one of the 13 schools of the University. The Committee is deeply grateful for the hard work of the many support officers and judges who have made this endeavor possible over the past many years and continue to do so.

² Two additional student-run disciplinary bodies investigate and adjudicate violations of IFC and ISC regulations respectively: the Inter-Fraternity Council Judiciary Committee (IFCJC) and the Inter-Sorority Council Judicial Board (ISCJB). These bodies' jurisdictions, processes, and outcomes are independent to that of the UJC and the UJC's jurisdiction over the University Standards of Conduct (cf. UJC Bylaws Article IX Section B [1]). The UJC appreciates the hard work and dedication of the IFCJC and ISCJB student members for the benefit of Greek life at the University and the larger community.

Complaints can be filed by any community member or organization against any University student or student group. To file a complaint or find more detailed information about the UJC's procedures, the current Committee, or statistics from past semesters, please visit our website (ujc.virginia.edu). Any inquiries should be directed to the UJC Chair at ujc-chair@virginia.edu.

Hazing

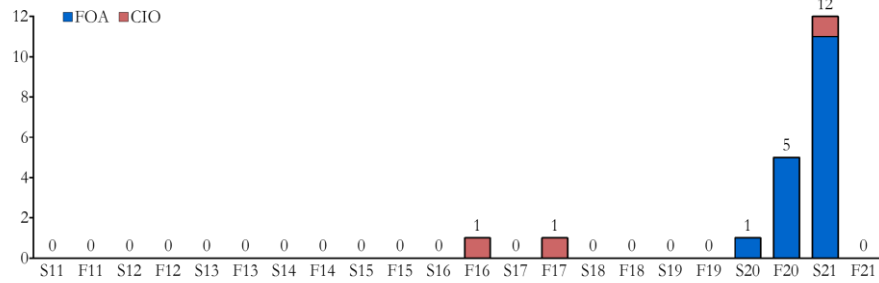

Allegations of hazing policy violations may be brought to the UJC as referenced in the Procedures for Reports of Hazing. The Procedures are managed by the Vice President & Chief Student Affairs Officer. Please consult Hoos Against Hazing for additional resources, information about hazing, and hazing policies at UVa. University policy STU-005 (Prohibition on Hazing) is an important component of intra-University investigations of hazing. Reports of hazing or retaliation may be referred directly to the UJC, ODOS, or Just Report It. If you are experiencing an emergency or believe that someone is in immediate danger, call 911.

COVID-19

University policy SEC-045 (COVID-19 Health & Safety Requirements – Vaccination, Testing, Face Masks, Events and Gatherings, and Visitors) has been a large component of the UJC's caseload since the Fall 2020 semester in light of the COVID-19 pandemic. The precise limits provided in this policy have changed numerous times since its inception. The UJC holds parties accountable to the text of the policy at the time of an incident.
